DESIGNERS

DOUG & BEN BURKMAN

What is it with Canada and gay fashion designer brothers? Not content with having given us Dean and Dan Caten, our northern neighbor has now sent over the dashing Burkman brothers, Doug (left) and Ben. Having honed their skills at the Gap, they launch their first collection next spring. With distribution deals on the table with Bergdorf Goodman and Fred Segal, the two brothers, who each cite the other as their chief inspiration, are on a mission to put the classic back into casual.
